Ann Sobel, Miami University, USA
Ewan Tempero, University of Auckland, NZ
Steve Vedaghat, University of Portland, USA

EXPERIENCE REPORTS
Martin Glinz (Co-Chair), Universität Zürich, Switzerland
Judith Stafford (Co-Chair), Tufts University, USA
Sj"{a}ak Brinkkemper, Emendas and Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, the Netherlands
Ivica Crnkovic, Mälardalen University, Sweden
David Garlan, Carnegie Mellon University, USA
Anthony Hall, Praxis Critical Systems, UK
Richard Hall, Grenoble University, France
Pankaj Jatole, Indian Institute of Technology Kanpur, India
Guenter Merbeth, Fujitsu Enabling Software Technology, Germany
Otto Preiss, ABB Corporate Research, Switzerland
Clemens Szypryski, Microsoft Corp., USA
Heinz Zuellighoven, University of Hamburg/Workplace Solutions Ltd., Germany
Albert Zündorf, Technische Universität Braunschweig, Germany

FRONTIERS OF SOFTWARE PRACTICE
Betty H.C. Cheng, Michigan State University, USA

INDUSTRIAL LIASON
James Hook, Oregon Graduate Institute of Science & Technology, USA
Vicki Wagers, Oregon Master of Software Engineering Program, USA

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS
Robert Bauer, Rational, USA
David Garlan, Carnegie Mellon University, USA

MOST INFLUENTIAL PAPER AWARD
Dewayne Perry, University of Texas at Austin, USA

NEWSLETTER
Hal Hart, TRW, USA

PANELS
Dewayne Perry, The University of Texas at Austin, USA

PUBLICITY
Margaret Burnett, Oregon State University, USA

RESEARCH DEMOS AND POSTERS
Mauro Pezze (Co-Chair), Universita’ di Milano - Bicocca, Italy

We want your participation in ICSE 2004. Write a paper, organise a workshop, present a tutorial, submit to the doctoral symposium, take the chance to showcase your new technology. ICSE 2004 is the venue for software engineering.

- write a technical paper - we are looking for:
  - technical papers on leading-edge research
  - presentations of experience at the cutting edge of practice

- submit a proposal - if you want to do it, we want to hear about it:
  - tutorials by technology experts
  - workshops on new and important emerging topics
  - formal demonstrations of significant research prototypes
  - doctoral symposium for PhD students
  - posters and informal demos
  - plus any other proposals within the remit and dignity of the event!

Everything you need to know is online

26th international conference on software engineering
May 23-28, Edinburgh International Conference Centre, Scotland, UK

We want your participation in ICSE 2004. Write a paper, organise a workshop, present a tutorial, submit to the doctoral symposium, take the chance to showcase your new technology. ICSE 2004 is the venue for software engineering.

Please mark your calendars for what we expect to be an international software engineering summit designed to bring together the best our profession has to offer. The organizing committee invites your participation in all aspects of the conference planning. We seek innovative ideas that will help us put together a conference with lasting impact on software engineering research and practice. Share with us your thoughts about how our profession might reach out beyond its traditional boundaries to better serve the needs of our society, to extend its impact on other fields, and to draw on ideas from other disciplines.

It is not too early to start planning your submissions, both in terms of technical papers and proposals for associated activities including tutorials, workshops, co-located events, demonstrations, etc.
